

1. EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES POLICY STATEMENT

“Global Remediations opposes discrimination against and/or harassment of anyone because of their race, ethnic or national origin, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, class, age, religion or employment status”.

All Service Care Legal employees, sub-contractors and work experience personnel are required to comply with this Policy Statement.

Any complaints of discrimination or harassment will be treated seriously. They will be fully investigated and may result in disciplinary action by Service Care Legal management.

Further policies and practices that promote equal opportunities will be developed, implemented and publicised by Global Remediations as required.

2. THE LEGISLATIVE OBLIGATIONS

The Global Remediations Equal Opportunities Policy goes beyond the minimum standards but has been developed within the framework of existing legislation. The relevant Acts of Parliament are:

- The Sex Discrimination Act 1975 (and its amendments, 1986)
- The Equal Pay Act 1970 (and its amendments 1983)
- The Race Relations Act 1976
- The Disabled Persons (Employment) Acts 1944 & 1958
- The Disabled Persons (Services, Consultation & Representation) Act 1986
- The Chronically Sick & Disabled Persons Act 1970 (and its amendments 1976)
- The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974
- The Disability Discrimination Act 1995
- The Employment Equality (Age) Regulations Act 2006

3. IMPLICATIONS OF THE LEGISLATION

If the legal requirements of the above Acts are contravened both Global Remediations and the individual concerned will be rendered liable to legal proceedings. If Global Remediations as an employer can prove that it has taken the necessary steps to prevent acts of discrimination, only the individual would be considered liable for that unlawful act. This applies to the Race Relations Act 1976 and Sex Discrimination Act 1975/1986. It is essential that all persons bound by this Policy are aware of their obligations under the law, as ignorance is not a defense.

4. DEFINITION OF TERMS

DIRECT DISCRIMINATION results from treating a person less favorably on grounds of gender, race, disability, colour, ethnic and national origin, nationality, sexuality, marital status, responsibility for dependants, religion, trade union activity or age (up to 65).

INDIRECT DISCRIMINATION arises when a condition or a requirement, although applied equally to the above groups listed in the Policy Statement, has the effect of excluding, penalising or treating less favorably, any of these groups and cannot be shown to be justifiable and will be to the detriment of those who cannot comply with it.

VICTIMISATION occurs if a person is given less favorable treatment than others because she/he has exercised her/his rights under the Policy of the relevant legislation.

HARASSMENT is defined as: “Any hostile or offensive act, deliberate or otherwise, or any unwelcome attention against an individual or group; any incitement to commit such acts; any actions which affect a person’s safety or comfort or which demean that person in any way”.

The following list provides examples of acts that might occur in incidents of harassment:

- Physical assault and abuse
- Verbal threat and abuse
- Unwelcome physical contact
- Derogatory name-calling, insults, demeaning jokes
- Offensive comments
- Incitement of others to behave in an oppressive manner
- Provocative behavior, mimicry
- Refusal to co-operate in accepted Service Care Legal activities with other people on grounds of their race, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, class, age, religion or employment status
- Wearing of racist or sexist badges or insignia
- Graffiti directed against an individual or vulnerable group
- Displaying or distributing leaflets etc containing offensive material
- Attempting to recruit other users, staff or students to racist organisations or groups.
